

The Workshop will address:

The three principal areas you must focus on to survive and prosper in this period of change

- Reassess the competitive element that generates profit & sustainable success for your business
- How to modify your business operations so that you can adapt quickly to the changed environment
- What you need to do to establish the absolute priority of cash over profit and investment whilst the storm is blowing

This workshop takes an innovative and practical perspective on your business model, your operations and cash management!

Focus Business Advisers

Focus Business Advisers Ltd. (FBA) is an all-island, full service consulting and business advice company which specialises in assisting small to medium sized businesses. Our aim is to bring the best possible practical business advice and assistance to the SME sector in Ireland in a manner and at a cost that makes sense.

At the core of our service, is the experience of our people – practical, real world experience gained in senior management positions, over many years in a range of industries. Our advisers or partners have worked in leading edge organisations and in many cases run their own business.

Our approach is professional, practical and hands-on. We help businesses identify and fix problems, plug skill gaps, plan effectively and progress.

Who should attend?

- Business Owners
- CEO's, CFO's and General Managers
- Any business manager with profit responsibilities
